Amthal signs deal with Mosanada

MANAMA: Bahrain-based software firm Amthal Group has signed a deal with Qatar's Mosanada UGL, an integrated facilities management service provider.

Under the agreement, Mosanada will use the Bahraini firm's Optimum enterprise resource planning (ERP) solution.

"Our products are highly flexible and adaptable to suit the requirement of any type of business," Amthal Group chief executive Hani Awachi said.

"We are proud that reputed companies like Mosanada UGL recognised the potential of our solutions and chose it.

"The Optimum ERP system, due to its various features and benefits, will definitely prove to be a worthy investment for all our customers," he said.
